Curriculum Details

Curriculum type : Local

Curriculum planning

Child-orientated curriculum using a story-learning approach can provide a rich environment for children to explore through play. Blended in English, Putonghua activities to develop an open, flexible school-based curriculum which cultivates a self-learning spirit, establish correct values and foster a balanced development in children with the love of God and man.

We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.

Learning / Teaching approach & activities

Following the guidelines of pre-school curriculum in Hong Kong, our project learning is enriched with visits, small group activities, scenarios and stories. Emphasizes play as the first step of constructive learning, children can participate and interact with different parties to build up knowledge meaningfully in different learning areas. Children can learn with rooms for autonomous learning, discover with freedom, and process learning to enhance learning motivation and effectiveness.

Assessment of children's learning experiences

Our children's learning progress reports are objectively documented after observation to record children's overall development with observation record form, theme-based and performance-based learning assessment, and learning report.

School Characteristics

School vision and mission

We are a Christian school that embraces the Anglican ethos inherited by Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui, which forms the basis of our curriculum design to nurture our next generation. We provide holistic education with Christian value as an essential element in our school.
