Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Non-local
Curriculum planning
We follow the British National Curriculum and The Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) at Sunshine House with more emphasis on creativity and specifically tailored for children's multi-cultural experience living in Hong Kong. Our early literacy program is delivered through the Oxford Reading Tree and the Jolly Phonics programs. Additionally, we place a great deal of emphasis on preparing our children for their Primary One admissions, teaching them our "Sunshine Values", helping them with self-esteem and confidence, and moulding them into the Global Citizens they will become.
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
Sunshine House has developed a thematic, cross-curricular approach to early education. Our students explore a wide range of subjects through active participation in individual, group and whole class activities: Arts and Crafts Health and Personal Development Putonghua Music (movement) Reading (storytelling) Talking and Listening Drama Environmental Studies Literature Mathematics Physical Education Structured Play Cooking Each child is unique and develops at his or her own pace. We ask that parents trust us to recognize the signs which indicate that a child is ready to begin to read, write and learn the basic concepts of mathematics, science and music. At Sunshine House, we believe that education is a process - a step by step lifelong progression - and building a proper foundation for this process is our goal.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
We evaluate children's development based on on-going observation and regular assessment instead of on results of "tests and examinations". We issue two "Children's Progress Reports" every year.

School Characteristics
School vision and mission
Our focus is to provide a holistic approach to early childhood learning and development. Built around the philosophy "for the love of children", Sunshine House gives children the very best start in life, anchored in love.
