Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Local
Curriculum planning
1. Based on the Christian belief, the curriculum aims to foster holistic development in moral, intellectual, physical, communal, and artistic aspects; help children know God, cherish life, recognize their own value and live with gratitude and willing to be taught. 2. To ignite children's interest in learning and foster the correct learning attitude to lay sound foundation for future learning. 3. Based on the principles of Jesus Christ, with reference to teaching theories of the famous educationist Benjamin Samuel Bloom and in accordance with the guide to curriculum of the Education Bureau to stimulate children to foster self-directed learning, bring into play their creativity, apply environmental aesthetics and information technology and develop interest in learning so as to integrate learning, games and living. We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
Thematic activities supported with classroom learning, activities corners, visits and group studies to guide children to learn voluntarily. 1. Religious and moral educational activities. 2. Let children learn from games through various explorative activities and free play. 3. Provide diversified learning zones for children to experience the self-directed learning process of 'Plan' – 'Do' – 'Review' through the High Scope teaching approach. 4. Learning English and Putonghua through various interesting activities.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
To assess children's development through ongoing observation, a profile on growth is kept for each child, appropriate support is provided according to individual learning progress.
