Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Local
Curriculum planning
Our curriculum is structured according to children's ability, interest, life experience and developmental characteristics. It allows children to learn from observing through the senses and practising. We adopt the learning areas for multiple intelligences to foster children's confidence and the abilities to communicate, create and solve problems. We also focus on moral education and emotion education. We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
We adopt the integrated activity approach, small group discussion, project-based learning for children to learn from play and to build up knowledge through their own participation, exploration and practice. We also utilize community resources to arrange field trips and visits, so as to enhance children's learning and basic knowledge.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
Adopt on-going learning assessment, anecdotal logging, listening and observation to record children's learning performance and development.
