Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Local
Curriculum planning
Our integrated, child-centered curriculum helps children develop self-learning ability and good learning attitudes and character. We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
1. Project Approach – To stimulate children to explore voluntarily and build up knowledge through the process of observation, discussion and exploration; 2. Montessori Method – To train mathematical and logical thinking, and develop reading and writing skills and self-care ability; 3. Fun with English – To arouse children's interest in learning English, and articulate listening and pronunciation skills; 4. Life education – Concerning individual child's needs and development, we foster positive and optimistic values through manifestation the Love of Jesus Christ.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
Continuous assessments; a profile on a child's learning is kept.

School Characteristics
School vision and mission
Objectives: To provide quality holistic education and child care services so as to lay good foundation for children; to provide opportunities for creative expression so children release their potentials; to emphasize home-school collaboration. Partnership is formed with families for attainment of good teaching and learning outcomes; to promote child education strategies and methods
Support to students
The school provides "Student Support Teacher" and "School Social Workers" to support children and parents in need.
Support to non-Chinese speaking (NCS) students
