Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Local
Curriculum planning
Our child-centered curriculum is tailored to the developmental needs of children. The learning content blends with children's daily life experiences and interests arranged through a vast array of activities such as inquiry-based science, drama, Orff music, affective education, creative art activities and the like for all-rounded development. Multi-sensory learning that encourages exploration is offered to enhance message processing and problem-solving ability, with the curriculum periodically reviewed for relevance.
We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
Learning focuses on personal exploration and creativity in which out-of-classroom learning is arranged for children, as well as participation in community activities such as field trips and visits etc. Classroom learning consists of activity-based learning, project-based learning, individual and group learning, with the use of Orff musical ideas for musical activities, and English classes taught by native teachers.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
Establishment of learning portfolios and child development reports to records all aspects of each child's development for continuous and summative assessment.
