Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Local
Curriculum planning
The curriculum is collaboratively planned and prepared by experienced teachers, along with cross-professionals such as educational psychologist, speech therapist, occupational therapist, physiotherapist. With The core value of the curriculum as "child-centeredness", combined with school-based curriculum features and considering the interests and development of children, the curriculum provides children with a balanced, comprehensive and spiral-styled learning activities. The curriculum emphasizes the individuality, autonomy and spontaneity of children, encouraging them to learn through play and establish a basic ability to learn. We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
The whole-language approach is used to guide children's learning in daily life situations and foster their language ability and reading habit. We help children to achieve all-round development, and cultivate their initiatives and independence in learning. Approach to empower children to participate in their own learning with thematic stories, free play, project work, self-care training activities, outdoor visits and the "Leap!" Body Education Program etc. According to the children's different abilities and development needs, the school-based curriculum is implemented to encourage children to explore and to learn and gain more diverse experiences in a multi-faceted learning environment, balanced and inspiring activities.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
