Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Local
Curriculum planning
Our curriculum is designed to nurture children's learning interest and motivation for exploration, help them to construct knowledge through life experience, enrich creative thinking, embrace challenges in ever-changing society and explore potential at the fullest extent. It also prepares children to be future citizens who are confident, able to think, cooperative, well communicated and inclusive. The "3C Curriculum" is designed to stimulate children's 3C abilities, namely, to develop children's ability in communication, collaboration and creativity. The school began to implement "Positive Education" in 2018 to deepen the school-based 3C curriculum. With focused professional training and practice, "Positive Education" has achieved initial results. In order to continue to optimize the school-based curriculum and further integrate the concept of "life education", through the model of home-school collaboration, let children practice kindness to others and have empathy, and cultivate the character of "kindness". We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
The "child-centered" "3C Curriculum" focuses on the construction of experience and integrated learning. Class activities are carried out through "play" in an integrated approach. According to children's characteristics, teachers create a rich and lively environment and design meaningful scenarios relating to children's life to help them explore and think in depth. We aim to help children acquire firsthand experience in activities and provide them the opportunity to explore freely with ample time via diversified and interactive learning environment, so as to stimulate their creativity and improve their communication and collaboration abilities. English classes are given with "shared reading approach" so that children can learn English in relaxing and life-based classroom activities. We engage English majors and foreign teachers to teach English so as to create a more favourable environment for children to learn English.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
The learning progress of students is recorded based on our daily observations. We have established a development assessment system to record and analyze children's developments, supplemented with a personal Portfolio. We also collect necessary information to learn about their learning progress and provide proper tutorship according to their actual needs.
