Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Local
Curriculum planning
We adopt a teaching model that incorporates stories and games into the children's learning. The curriculum integrates the moral and affective education, illiteracy and trilingualism. Children can explore from games and construction to increase / motivate their learning interest and self-confidence. Through the cooperation of the family and school, children will grow healthy and happy, nurturing their interest to learn and develops their social skills. We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
The curriculum focuses on the learning needs of children. We value their experience and actively cultivate their exploration spirit. Our curriculum includes different learning themes and activities, such as game, school trips, experiences, experiments, and extensions. We guide children to build internal motivation, self-learning ability, and enable them to develop active learning attitude and good habit . We aims to help children achieve five developmental objectives, namely "Moral Development", "Cognitive and Language Development", "Physical Development", "Affective and Social Development", and "Aesthetic Development". Integrated and comprehensive learning experience are provided for a more effective learning experiences.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
We establishe a "Portfolio" for each child which records the child's learning in words, photos and children's works, adopts a progressive and summative assessment model, and assess the child's development level according to the developmental characteristics of their individual age with a regular interviews with parents, understanding of the progress of early childhood learning, and timely and appropriate support through home-school collaboration.
