Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Local
Curriculum planning
Our curriculum adopts the thematic approach and uses illustrated stories to teach children. Interesting stories motivate children to learn. Various drama and exploration activities are used to help children develop their good character, capabilities to think, to communicate, to connect with others emotionally and socially, to observe, to express, to perform their motor skills, etc. Through the learning experiences, children build up knowledge bases and solid foundations in different areas of development. We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
We make use of illustrated stories, drama activities, exploratory activities, small groups, outdoor visits, club activities, field performances, visits and a variety of themed seminars, so that children can learn while having fun.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
Teachers continuously observe children's performance in the six major learning areas and use text and photos to show and analyse children's personal develop and learning in a portfolio (from entry to exit) as a way to assess children's learning performance.

School Characteristics
