Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Local
Curriculum planning
Provide international localization courses. We implement the International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme, nurturing children to be risk-takers, inquirers, knowledgeable, communicators, principled, open-minded, caring, thinkers, balanced and reflective life-long learners. Implement the biliterate and trilingual educational system to cultivate children's Chinese, English and Putonghua skills, and implement the Columbia University Teachers College Reading and Writing Program in the lower and upper classes to improve children's reading and writing skills, nurturing young children to become global citizens.
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
We provide a trilingual nurturing and rigorous curriculum to empower individuals to reach their full potential and positively impact their community and the world. This is achieved through a learning and teaching approach which integrates literacy and numeracy through inquiry based activities. These activities included: Mathematics, Science, Sociology, Art, Personal Education, Social Education, and Physical Education which encouraging young children to learn actively, use skills and stimulate thinking, deepen and consolidate what they have learned.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
We recognize that learning, teaching and assessment are all inter-related and inform curriculum development and review. Our assessment principles promote children's learning and appraise a broad range of concepts, attitudes, knowledge and skills appropriate to the complex world we live in. We incorporate a variety of assessment methods which are relevant and motivating to students. Formative and summative assessment is conducted at all year levels and parents are regularly informed of their child's developmental progress.

School Characteristics
School vision and mission
To develop innovative learning and teaching environments that foster teachers' professionalism and help children reach their full potential. We deeply believe that the childhood years are the most important for growing and learning. Therefore, we must provide our children with: • A Safe and Stimulating Learning Environment • A Nurturing and Caring Atmosphere • A Wide Variety of Learning Opportunities • A Programme that Prepares Global Citizens for Tomorrow
