Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Non-local
Curriculum planning
The Early Years Foundation Stage Curriculum (EYFS) 2012 (England and Wales)
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
The Early Years Foundation Stage is divided into seven key areas of learning: Personal, Social and Emotional Development, Physical Development, Communication and Language, Literacy, Mathematics, Understanding the World, and Expressive Arts and Design. Each term, each class explores these areas through a theme. In addition, children enjoy discrete PE sessions and specialist teacher led Music and swimming lessons each week.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
Formative and Summative assessments take place at regular intervals to provide individual next steps for learning for each child across the curriculum. Academic reports and Learning Journeys are shared with parents.

School Characteristics
School vision and mission
Educational Excellence for Life and Leadership
Support to students
The School actively promotes and safeguards the welfare of its students. Pastoral care in the Lower School is led by each Class Teacher. The School employs a School Psychologist, an English for Academic Purposes Co-ordinator and an Individual Needs Co-ordinator who work within the School's Pastoral Support Committee to coordinate the pastoral care of students in all parts of the School.
Support to non-Chinese speaking (NCS) students
No information
Support to students with special needs
No information
Link with parents
Parent-teacher association : Yes
Other activities / communication with parents
Parents are encouraged to take an active role in life in the School community. Communication Diaries, collection points in the day and an open door policy between parents and teachers all ensure excellent relationships. The School has a parent-teacher association, Friends of Harrow, and each class has a Class Parent representative who helps to organise events for children and parents in the class. The School also runs forums for parents to provide feedback to the School, including the Food Committee and the Transport Committee.
